

Handing Chart

For Key-Retaining Function

Key-retaining: The key cannot be removed from the lock when the bolt is retracted and in the unlocked position.

Purpose: The key-retaining function is used so that cabinets are not left unlocked.

Handing: The below handing information is only required when ordering key-retaining function. Do not specify handing for standard (non-key-retaining) locks.

